The attendee must specify his/her first and last name and state whether his/her is a shareholder attending the meeting himself/herself or a proxy. Before every suggestion or question is submitted, the Company has opened channels for sending advice and questions during the meeting as follows:

- Chat channel for text messages;
- An audio chat channel where attendees press the raising hand button and turn on the microphone on their device after the operator sends you an invitation to chat. Please turn off the microphone after the conversation is finished every time (For more details, please refer to the user manual sent to the attendees' Emails).

In this regard, if shareholders have questions about the meeting, they can contact the following staff:

1. Regarding submitting documents confirming identity to attend the shareholders' meeting via E-Meeting, please contact the Company Secretary for further information via the Company's contact channels as detailed above.
2. Regarding the process of attending the meeting and voting via E-Meeting, in the case of correct and complete identity verification, please contact OJ International Co., Ltd. at the phone number specified in the Email that sends you the system's user manual.

Voting and Counting of Votes Methodology on AGM

1. With regards to today's voting, the number of votes of each shareholder had equaled to the number of shares that one possessed. One share equaled one vote. Each shareholder was entitled to vote, in each agenda, to approve, disapprove or abstain. Each shareholder was allowed to vote only in one choice. Otherwise, the ballot would be considered voided. In the case of a proxy who was granted power of attorney from a shareholder abroad to be a custodian in Thailand to look after the shares, the proxy was to vote in accordance with what the shareholder specified in the power of attorney.
2. With regards to the procedure of counting votes in each agenda, the Company was to input data through Bar Code. Simple majority would be the main principle of deciding votes unless there was a legislation determining otherwise. The process of counting votes was shown on the monitor. The voting procedure was divided into 3 parts;
 - Part 1: Agenda number 1, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 8 which were ordinary agenda were to be decided by a simple majority of shareholders who were present at the meeting and voted.
 - Part 2: Agenda number 7 which was about the determination of pays remuneration for the Company's Board of Directors for the year 2024, had to be passed with two-third majority of shareholders who were present at the meeting and voted.
 - Part 3: Agenda number 9 which were about consideration to approve of the extension of the ordinary shares issuance and offering of increased capital common shares of the Company under the General Mandate basis had to be passed with three-fourths majority of shareholders who were present at the meeting and voted.
3. To achieve counting on vote by quickly, the vote counting would be based on the deduction of counting of "No" and "Abstained" votes from total number of votes attending the meeting on each agenda. Any shareholders who would like to vote "No" or "Abstained" will be requested to raise their hands and the company officers will collect their votes. If no one raised his hand, the vote would be counted as unanimous.
4. The minutes of meeting will be publicized in the company website within 14 days after the meeting date.
